

The Jewish Family Ethics Textbook - Abridged Table of Contents*
(*excluding Text Studies; see the Beginnings of Life Table of Contents design sample)

Preface

Acknowledgements

How To Use This Book

Overview

Using the Book in a Classroom Setting

Using the Book without a Teacher

Introduction

Theories of Ethical Decision-Making

How Jews Approach Ethical Problems

Works and History of Classical Jewish Literature

A Brief Jewish Lexicon

Classical Literature as Understood by Modern Jews

1. Parents and Children

Case Study #1: Who Chooses Where to Go to College?

Case Study #2: Caring for a Parent with Dementia

Case Study #3: Distancing from an Abusive Parent

2. Honesty

Case Study #1: Cheating on an Exam

Case Study #2: Potential Plagiarism

Case Study #3: Withholding Part of the Truth from a Prospective Employer

3. Social Media

Case Study #1: Social Media Insults

Case Study #2: Online Privacy

4. Sex and Intimacy

Case Study #1: Four Ideas about Jewish Sex Ethics

Case Study #2: Identities Other Than Heterosexual

5. Medical Ethics at the Beginning of Life

Case Study #1: Who Counts as a Parent?

Case Study #2: Choosing Single Parenthood

Case Study #3: Surrogate Motherhood

Case Study #4: Parenthood Through Cloning

6. Abortion

Case Study #1: Fetal Reduction of Twins

Case Study #2: Abortion of a Fetus with a Deficit

Case Study #3: When Contraception Fails

7. Medical Ethics at the End of Life

Case Study #1: Defining Death

Case Study #2: Extending Life: At What Cost?

Notes

Bibliography